FIRST BIG DAY"Drys" Will Follow up Local Option
Sunday With Other Temperance
Meetings in Campaign.

PASTOR'S SUBJECTS FIXED

Each One Will Discuss Different
Phase of Topic at Mass Meeting
Sunday Night

The "drys" have preparations complete for what is expected to be the greatest demonstration ever made here in a "wet" and "dry" campaign. According to the program which has been outlined for Sunday, which is termed local option day, there will be something going on from morning until night.

The men's Bible class teachers will exchange pulpits, the ministers will exchange pulpits, men's and women's mass meetings will be held in the afternoon and at night a mass meeting for all persons will be held.

The Sunday meetings, however, is only the beginning of the activity of the "drys", it was stated by one in authority today. Only one week will elapse before more local option meetings will be held.

Frank J. Cannon, former United States senator from Utah, will be here Sunday, March 7, and will address a men's big meeting in the afternoon and a mass meeting at night. The men's meeting will be held at St. Paul's M. E. church and the mass meeting at night at the Main Street Christian church. Ex-senator Cannon is a most gifted orator and is heralded as a man who can give as severe an arraignment of the liquor traffic as any man who is engaged in combating the business.

The next "dry" meeting in order after the visit of the former senator here, will be addressed by Ex-governor Patterson of Tennessee. He will speak at the Main Street Christian church Thursday night, March 11. It is stated by the "drys" that it was impossible to get the former governor on Sunday so he was given this date.

It is also expected that George R. Stuart and Lincoln McConnell, both of whom have appeared at the chauntiqua here, may be brought here for temperance addresses before the campaign closes.

Sunday morning the Rev. S. S. Huntington of the First Baptist church will preach at the United Presbyterian church, the Rev. A. D. Batchelor of St. Paul's M. E. church at the First Presbyterian, the Rev. C. M. Yocum of the Main Street Christian at St. Paul M. E. the Rev. D. Ira Lambert of the First Presbyterian at the Main Street Christian and the Rev. A. W. Jamieson of the United Presbyterian at the First Baptist.

Judge Charles F. Malsbary of Cincinnati will speak to the men's big meeting at St. Paul's M. E. church Sunday afternoon. The meeting will begin at two o'clock and Lucas orchestra will play. Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley will speak at the women's big meeting at the United Presbyterian church, beginning at the same time, and Wagoner's orchestra will play.

At night the ministers will participate in the union meeting at the Main Street Christian church at seven o'clock. The Rev. A. D. Batchelor will discuss the legal phase of the local option question; the Rev. S. G. Huntington, the business phase; the Rev. D. Ira Lambert, the moral phase; the Rev. A. W. Jamieson, the taxation phase and the Rev. C. M. Yocum will have for his subject, "Is a 'Wet' Town Better Than a 'Dry' Town," or "Does Prohibition Prohibit?"

Enters Plea of Guilty to Charge
Stealing Watch.

STOLEN FROM ROY PERKINS

Jesse Easley, colored, 22 years old, was given a suspended sentence of from one to eight years in the state reformatory at Jeffersonville this morning by Judge Sparks when he entered a plea of guilty to the charge of petit larceny.

Easley stole a watch from the grocery store of Roy Perkins in West Eighth street ten days ago. According to the story told the officials, he sold the watch to another colored man and when he found out that Perkins was after him advised the second party to return the watch. Easley was represented in court by the county attorney, Wallace Morgan, and in entering a plea of guilty asked the court for mercy. The suspended sentence against Easley will stand pending good behavior.

BRINGS FORTH
WRATH OF COURTFailure of John E. Grubbs, a Guardian, to Obey Citation Causes
Judge to Criticize Him.

NO REPORT SINCE OCT. 1911

Is Given Twenty-Four Hours to File
One or Court Will Hold Him in Contempt, He Says.

Failure to obey a citation brought forth the wrath of Judge Sparks on John E. Grubbs this afternoon in the circuit court. Grubbs is the guardian of his children, Marie, Wilbur and Goldie Grubbs, and as guardian has not made a report to the court since October 5, 1911. Some time ago Judge Sparks issued several citations in guardianships and gave them all five days to explain to the court why reports had not been made or to file the reports.

Grubbs, who is employed at the Cassidy meat market, ignored the citation, as far as telling the court anything and today an attachment was issued on him. He was brought into court and in no uncertain terms was told what was expected and was given twenty-four hours to make a report or take some action. Grubbs told the court that he appeared in the court room one day and that because the judge was busy he told the bailiff to tell the court he had been there. Judge Sparks told him he was the one to see and told the bailiff. At the end of twenty-four hours if Grubbs does not do something he will be held in contempt of court.

Judge Sparks, since taking the bench, has found the probate docket in need of attention as many reports are due. Three citations have been issued and others will be forthcoming if reports and the court business is not given more attention. Judge Sparks has even criticized several of the attorneys for getting behind in their reports. The court believes that guardianships are too important to be neglected and the reports must be made from now on when they are due.

In the Grubbs case the bond is only one thousand dollars and the amount of money held by the guardian is small, but there has been no accounting for three years. Carl Nipp was the attorney for Grubbs when he was appointed the guardian. Satisfactory returns were made on the other two citations issued by the court.

RUNS INTO SCHOOL HACK

Edson Aiken's Auto Strikes Vehicle,
Knocking Horse Down.

A serious accident was narrowly averted this morning when the automobile driven by Edson Aiken, county commissioner ran into a Raleigh school hack. Mr. Aiken was coming out of his barn lot and failed to see the approaching hack. One of the horses was knocked down and the automobile was badly damaged. The hack was loaded with children on the way to the Raleigh school and a near panic resulted when they saw a collision was unavoidable. No one was injured.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richey were here this morning, enroute for Milroy where they will reside permanently. They formerly lived west of this city, and have moved to a farm east of Milroy.

RUSH IS TIED
UP WITH HENRYApportionment Proposed in New Bill
Would Not Allow Representative
From This County.

ON BASIS OF 8,000 VOTERS

Senatorial District Proposed in Another Measure is Rush, Fayette
and Decatur County.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 26.—The large counties in Indiana having three or more representatives under the new apportionment will be districted so that each representative will have his definite constituents if the bill of Senator McCormick introduced today is enacted. McCormick is chairman of the legislative apportionment committee of the senate and the bill represents the committee's work. It is understood to be the organization measure which will become a law.

New apportionment will be made on the basis of 8,000 voters. Lake county makes the biggest gain in representation under the bill, jumping from one member and a joint member to four members. Marion county jumps from eight to ten, Vanderburg from one and one-half to three and one-half. Allen from three to three and one-half and Vigo from two and one-half to three. Jefferson and some other counties in the southern part of the state, which have had one representative fall to merely a joint representative. These counties have lost population while counties in central and northern Indiana have generally gained.

The proposed apportionment follows:

Counties or groups of counties have one representative—Posey and Gibson, Gibson, Vanderburg and Warrick, Perry and Spencer, Knox, Knox and Pike, Sullivan, Greene, Greene and Davisess, Monroe and Brown, Martin and Dubois, Lawrence, Orange and Washington, Harrison and Crawford, Floyd, Clark, Jackson, Scott and Jefferson, Bartholomew, Decatur and Jennings, Ripley and Switzerland, Dearborn and Ohio, Hancock, Franklin and Fayette, Shelby, Henry, Henry and Rush, Wayne, Wayne and Union, Johnson, Putnam and Owen, Parke and Montgomery, Morgan, Hendricks, Fountain and Warren, Vermillion, Randolph, Jay, Adams, Wells and Blackford, Montgomery, Benton and Tippecanoe, Boone, Clinton, Hamilton, Tipton and Madison, Howard, Allen and Whitley, Noble, DeKalb Noble, LaGrange and Steuben, Huntington, Wabash, Miami, Fulton and Miami, Cass, Carroll, Cass, Kosciusko, LaPorte, LaPorte and Starke, Lake and Porter, Newton and Jasper, Pulaski and White, Tippecanoe, Clay, Marshall.

Counties having two representatives: Madison, Delaware, Grant and Elkhart.

Counties having three representatives: Vanderburg, Vigo, Allen, St. Joseph.

Counties having four representatives: Lake.

Counties having ten representatives: Marion.

Under the new legislative apportionment bill, Rush county will be joined with Henry county in electing a representative, whereas for the last several years Rush county has elected a representative alone. If the bill passes—and it most undoubtedly will because it is the Democratic organization measure—Rush county will have to be content with being tied up with Henry county. Republicans were surprised that the

Resolution For Governor to Appoint a Commission.

SENATE KILLS MERGER BILL

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 26.—Both branches of the legislature today went on record as opposed to moving Indiana university from Bloomington to Lafayette and combining it with Purdue. The senate killed the VanAuken merger bill and the house quickly tabled a resolution by Representative Bausman calling for a commission to investigate the proposed investigation.

Both actions were unanimous. The senate adopted by a vive voce vote the unanimous report of the finance committee that the VanAuken bill be postponed indefinitely. There was no debate in either house.

Bloomington will keep Indiana university for the present at least if unanimous action taken by the house today is any sign. It tabled quickly and without debate the resolution of Representative Bausman from the Lafayette district calling for the governor to investigate the advisability of removing Indiana university from Bloomington.

Representative Sare of Bloomington moved the resolution be tabled saying there was no need of such action.

Bombardment of Dardanelles Causes Big Deline in Prices.
(By United Press.)
Chicago, Feb. 26.—The crumbling of the outer Dardanelles fortification before the great naval guns of the allies found an echo in the local wheat pit today when all grains dropped with a crash.

Opening at $1.51 and $1.21 per bushel for May and July options respectively, which were over night recessions of from two and three-eighths to 4 and one-quarter cents. May wheat at one time went as low as $1.46 while July wheat dropped to $1.20½. The extreme drop from yesterday's close on May wheat was seven and three-eighths cents. On July wheat the loss since yesterday's close was four and three-fourths.

There were wild scenes in the wheat pit as prices fell.

Mrs. John Rosencrance, who was declared a person of unsound mind last week, will be taken to Madison tomorrow by Sheriff Cavitt. Mrs. Rosencrance found out this morning that the necessary papers for her commitment at the asylum had arrived and left home this morning, declaring she would never go to the asylum. She was found by her husband along the river northeast of the city and taken to jail by Sheriff Cavitt.

Rheumatism in Joints

Pain Disappears and Swelling Vanishes in a Few Days

That is what happens if you use Rheuma, the wonderful remedy that Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists sell on the "money back if not cured" plan. There is a vast amount of rheumatism in this vicinity, and if you know any sufferer, call his attention to this generous offer.

Rheuma is a quick-acting prescription. You will know your rheumatism is leaving 24 hours after you take the first dose. It dissolves the uric acid and drives it from its lodging place.

Mrs. Alice A. Brown, Ithaca, N. Y. writes: "For seven years I suffered greatly with rheumatism in my hip; at night I was scarcely able to sleep. One bottle of Rheuma cured me."

That sounds miraculous, but Rheuma does miraculous things. Fifty cents a bottle at Johnson's and all druggists.

Facing About

It is little wonder that many persons become disgusted with the wobbling editorial policy of many metropolitan newspapers after the spectacle furnished by Indianapolis Star. It was only during the last campaign while the Star was supporting the Progressive party ticket from top to bottom that the Star opposed the very interests whose cause it now espouses.

Those who have watched the legislature with any degree of interest have noted that the supreme fight among the Democrats has been to pass a measure that affects only Indianapolis—a measure designed by the machine politicians to vest in the mayor of Indianapolis monarchical power. The Indianapolis Star stood for the bill and the Indianapolis News fought it, the News eventually winning out because the lower house killed the bill this week.

The bill proposed for Indianapolis a so-called broad of finance which would take over many of the duties now held by the council and would make the members of the board solely responsible to the mayor, who would appoint them. Those back of the bill refused the suggestion that a recall clause be placed in the bill or that the measure be submitted to the people of Indianapolis to learn their attitude in regard to it.

The Indianapolis Star tried to shove it down the throats of Indianapolis people when it embodied all that the Star fought with such venom in the last campaign. Many persons are led to wonder how the Star can face about so completely.

Prince of "Side-Steppers"

Miss Ester Griffin White, formerly employed on one of the Richmond newspapers, but now publisher and editor of "The Little Paper" a new newspaper venture in Richmond—its third number having just appeared—is an ardent suffragist and in an editorial she classifies Finly Gray congressman from this district, as "prince of side-steppers." She speaks in part as follows of Finly's record on the suffrage question.

Witness that prince of old side-steppers, Finly Gray.

Once Finly was introduced to some local suffragists who asked him if he was going to support the cause in Congress.

"Certainly, dear ladies," he averred, "why I advocated woman's suffrage in my first graduating essay."

Finly didn't go on to relate how many graduating essays he had had since.

There's no two ways, though, that he is one of the most horrible examples we've ever had in Washington.

To all the women's clubs in the district, he declared with one voice and accord that he would support the suffrage amendment defeated in Congress some weeks since.

Then he went straight down to the national capitol and voted against it!

The thing for the women to do is to watch the lineup in the Indiana legislative vote and put a large, fat, juicy black mark after every man who votes against it.

The time of year is here when men in charge of the roads of Rush county can be of the most valued service to the county. After rains such as we have had off and on the last few days, the roads are soft so that the conditions are ideal for a road drag. Country roads can now be put in such shape by rounding up the surface so that they will drain well that they will need little care until next fall when the ruts begin to wear in them again. Many farmers who have a great interest in the roads of the county say that there is very little evidence of road drags being used in Rush county at this time. Road experts are agreed that a little work with road drags at this season is worth more than many hundred yards of gravel because the surface can be kept smooth so that it will be free of standing water and the roads will not wear near so fast.

RUSH IS TIED UP WITH HENRY

Democratic majority should hook Rush county up with Henry county, which has a Republican majority and would assure a Republican representative from the district.

The apportionment is on the basis of eight thousand voters, which accounts for the fact that Rush county is not left a separate district. There are approximately fifty-five hundred voters in Rush county. The apportionment will be binding for six years if the legislature acts favorably on the bill.

Under the terms of the senatorial reapportionment bill introduced in the senate yesterday as the organization measure, Rush county is joined with Decatur and Fayette county to elect a senator. At present Rush, Fayette and Hancock counties compose a senatorial district. This new district will not make any material difference because both Decatur and Hancock counties show Democratic majorities.

A senatorial reapportionment bill was introduced earlier in the session which placed Rush county with Fayette and Franklin in a senatorial district, but that measure seems to have no chance at passage. Hancock county, which is taken from this district, is placed with Madison and Henry in the latest bill.

WOULD CHANGE OLD METHODS

New Primary Bill Which Will Likely Pass Will Revolutionize Political Machinery.

COMMITTEEMEN ELECTED
Also Makes Compulsory Election of Delegates to County, District and State Conventions.

If the compromise direct primary bill which has been introduced in the state senate at Indianapolis, mention of which was made yesterday, becomes a law, the political machinery of any given political division of the state may be revolutionized. There is strong probability of the bill becoming a law because the organization in the legislature is behind it. Primary elections are mandatory only in case in the VanNuys bill. It provides all precinct committeemen shall be selected at a primary.

The bill was introduced by Senator VanNuys of Anderson, Democratic floor leader in the upper house and a former Rush county man. His bill differs from the Jones bill, which has passed the house. The Jones bill is a duplicate of the Rinear bill which the senate committee has recommended for indefinite postponement.

The difference between the Jones bill and the VanNuys bill lies in the fact that the latter provides for the retention of the state convention and for the nomination of candidates for congress and other offices by convention unless the people express a desire to the contrary at primaries that are to be held for the election of precinct committeemen. The VanNuys bill provides, however, that there shall be a direct election of all delegates.

The advocates of the Jones bill are insisting that it shall be adopted without amendment and that the VanNuys bill does not fulfill the platform pledges. It is the understanding, however, that an attempt will be made to use the VanNuys bill as the basis for a compromise measure on which a majority of the Democrats of the house and the senate may be able to agree.

The bill makes compulsory the election of precinct committeemen and delegates to all district, county and state conventions by primary and makes the selection of candidates for state, congressional, county, city, township and legislative officers optional with the voters. It provides for the election of precinct committeemen on the second Tuesday of January of the even number of years. In addition to the selection of precinct committeemen, the bill provides that at the January primary the question of nominating candidates for office by the convention system or by direct primaries may be submitted to the voters and the will of the majority would prevail. In order to put that question to a vote it would be necessary for the board of primary election commissioners to receive a petition signed by five per cent of the voters, the petition to be filed thirty days before the primary.

On the third Tuesday in March delegates to the state convention would be elected, and at the same time the selection of county, congressional or legislative officers would be made either by direct primary or by delegate convention, as the voters of the county determined. At the same time delegates to the national convention would be chosen.

On the second Tuesday in April, primaries for the election of city precinct committeemen would be held and it would be determined by voters then whether they desire the city officials to be nominated by delegate convention or by direct primary. Before the question could be submitted to the voters, however, a petition, signed by 10 per cent of the voters, would have to be presented, asking that the nominations be made by primary.

The bill also stipulates that on the third Tuesday in January the district chairmen shall meet in Indianapolis to elect a chairman. The county precinct committeemen would elect the county chairmen and the district chairmen in Marion county would be elected by the county precinct committeemen. In other districts the chairmen would be chosen by the county chairmen.

Almost a Riot On Main St.

The most tremendous rush for bargains ever witnessed in Rushville occurred today at the sale of the shoe stock of Ben A. Cox which is placed on sale for ten days by J. M. Costello & Co. to go at any price it will bring to raise cash quick. The people carried away the stock in armsful, many buying as many as 15 or 20 pairs and in many instances a half dozen pairs of shoes, slippers and Oxfords were bought at the price of one pair.

The sale is advertised to run for ten days but if the people continue as they started out, it's a question whether the stock will hold out for the advertised time, as it was necessary to lock the doors today each time after enough people were admitted to fill the store, and after being served they passed out the rear way. The sale will open again Saturday at 9:00 a. m.

TWO TEAMS WILL BEAR WATCHING

White Sox and Yanks Expected to
Be in Running This Year in
American League

BOTH UNDERGO CHANGES

Collins Should Help Chicago and
Donovan as Manager Should Put
Life in Yankees

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Feb. 26.—Watch the White Sox and the Yanks this season; next October is going to find them a whole lot nearer the top than did last October. Maybe one of them will win the pennant; maybe not—but you can take it from me a team that wins it is going to have to play these two hard and safe all the way. This was the warning given at a recent league meeting here by a veteran manager who has seen seasons come and go—many more than he cares to admit.

"For why?" he echoed. "Just this—the Sox are due to make things hot for the winner because they have all the requisites of a darned good team; and the Yanks because they are in the Braves' class—not conceded much of a chance at the start of the season—and have a rip-stortin' manager in Bill Donovan who will get more work out of his men than any man in the business with the exception of George Stallings.

"Those White Sox have a real team now that Eddie Collins is playing second bag. He's a whole team in himself, for that matter. Their pitching staff last year was second to none in the league—Cicotte, Faber, Russell, Benz, and Scott won't take anybody's dust if they're in any sort of condition. Collins is going to cover a multitude of sins with his batting and base running. And he's going to steady this big, heavy-hitting Frenchman, Fournier, at first, too.

"The Yanks are going to figure, strange as it may seem. Remember the Braves? Well, they didn't have anything much but a manager when they started last season. That's the way with the Yanks. It may be a fool hunch o'mine, but I can't see anything but them up there battin' all the way.

Comeback of Old Fashions Noted In Styles For Approaching Season

BY MARGARET MASON

The newest silhouettes for Spring is called the "cloche;" Its quite the thing. "Cloche" means a bell, in French, you see.

And that is fitting as can be. For what more logical, pray tell, Can one find than a bell shaped belle?

New York, Feb. 26.—The belles of 1915 certainly bid fair to be ringers for the belles of olden days. With the tight bodice effects and full, full skirts, some even daring a bit of erinoline, the old fashions have now become the new ones. Become is quite the right word, too, for these quaintly feminine fashions are becoming to almost every type of femininity. So much so, that, given the lure of full ruffled skirts, a snug silken bodice and one of these adorably frivolous and inconsequent tiny round hats perched jauntily bobbing her brow, most any belle may be sure of a ring before the month of brides and roses.

The finish of these voluminous skirts around the hem has become of paramount importance. Because its brevity has brought the hem more within the line of vision it must needs be enhanced and embellished. A perfectly good plain hem is no longer considered quite smart. There is a pronounced tendency toward a pointed or scalloped edge. A well rounded scallop is perhaps the happiest finish in juxtaposition to a well rounded limb. One of the most charmingly finished skirts in the Fifth Avenue window displays is an evening model of Nile green facile. The skirt is really a sort of two in one effect, for the outer skirt is very full and ankle length with a ten inch inset of scalloped Nile green net just above its scalloped silk hem. Under this outer skirt an underskirt a trifle less full and a trifle longer shows a bewitching trimming of tiny silk rucheing and pale pink rose buds through the net transparency. The skirt is set high on the Empire bodice with a tiny rucheing and an inset of the net in the waist reveals a hint of the pink rose buds beneath.

Tiny puff sleeves of the silk finish this green gem of a gown.

Another favorite skirt finish is the box plaited frill which lends itself beautifully to the desired flaring effect. The plaited frills are more effective on the silk afternoon dresses and for street gowns while the scooped round off daintier evening and dance frocks.

There seems to be a perfect passion for peplums. Without an accompanying peplum the tight bodice looks sort of half baked and under done as 'twere. The little square tabs of the wall of Troy pattern make a very picturesque and artistic peplum but the man who put the real pep in peplum is the designer of the boxplaid, one which flares out with dashing insouciance from the snug waist line. These boxplaid peplums are particularly crisp and flared in taffeta or faille and the maid apparently herself in a full skirt finished with a box plaited flounce with her trig waist flaring out into one of these boxplaid peplum frills to match readily conveys the impression that not all the pep is in the peplum after all.

There is a Simian tendency in the jacket line again for the monkey-jacket appears on many of the new costumes in many styles and guises. In some circles, usually the bull ring, the monkey jacket is known as the belero, but by another name it would still be as short and sweet.

There is a new long sleeve that widens out gradually with a flare over the hand that by its very novelty is crowding the long tightly buttoned cuffs for favor. It is far more becoming to the average hand than the tight cuff which shows up raspy knuckles and soraggy digits with uncompromising severity.

Where the flaring sleeves tend to soften and veil the hands the flaring skirts have the opposite effect on the feet. Hence a well shod tootsie is a necessity of which the full flaring skirt is the mother.

Since the laced boots found such favor this winter it is only the natural outcome that the Oxford should be revived for Spring. It is being shown with different colored cloth and buckskin tops and patent kid vamps or in all over black patent kid and gummetal, bronze kid, grey suede or anything you fancy to boot.

THE AUTO-OILED WINDMILL WITH DUPLICATE GEARS RUNNING IN OIL

Every bearing is constantly flooded with oil. Two quarts of oil in the gear case of this 8-foot auto-oiled windmill will keep the gears and every bearing flooded with oil for a year or more.

The galvanized steel helmet covers the gears, keeps out rain, keeps out dust, keeps in oil. The mill needs oiling but once a year.

There is a windmill, known the world over as "the windmill which runs when all others stand still." This new windmill with gears and bearings flooded with oil runs in much less wind than that well known windmill.

The two large gears, which lift the load straight up, are each independent of the other and each is driven by its own pinion on the main shaft and must take its half of the load at all times.

The auto-oiled windmill, with its duplicate gears and two pinions lifting the load straight up, is unbreakable. Every 8-foot mill is tested under a pumping load of 3000 pounds on the pump rod.

For the larger sizes the load is proportionately greater. We know that every one of these windmills is unbreakable. We venture the assertion that this is the most nearly perfect, best made, best oiled, most nearly perpetual, automatic and self-sufficient of any machine of any kind ever made for farm work and the most nearly fool-proof.

There is no friction on any part of the furling device when the mill is running and very little when the wheel is furled.

A small child can easily furl this windmill or an automatic regulator can take care of it. One of these mills has been furlled 10,000 times in one day by a man on our premises—more times than it would ordinarily be furlled in 30 years of service.

A band brake, of the automobile type, is used, and it always holds.

The gear case contains two pairs of gears and the supply of oil. From this gear case the oil circulates to every bearing in a constant stream. It flows out through the friction washers in the hub of the wheel and is automatically returned to the gear case. Not a drop of oil can escape. It is used over and over. So long as there is any oil in the gear case the gears and every bearing will be flooded with oil.

If you are tired of climbing a windmill tower; if you are tired of buying repairs and having them put on; or, if you are tired of waiting for a big wind, let us furnish you an unbreakable, self-oiling, ever-going mill to go on any old tower. It costs but little and you will get the difference between no water in a light wind and an abundance of water in almost no wind.

The flooding of all the working parts with oil, the perfect balance of the wheel and vane on the tower, the very small turntable on which the mill pivots and the outside furling device make this difference.

Now there is no objection to a high tower. Have as high a tower as you need to get wind. You don't have to climb it. Your dealer can come once a year and put in oil, if needed, and inspect the mill.

Running water purifies itself—stagnant water, standing water, collects and retains impurities. If you pump from your well constantly all the water it can spare, the water that comes in to take its place will be pure. If the water in your well stands until you happen to want some, and you pump but little, then it is likely that surface water will flow into it and carry in impurities. The unsafe well is the one that has standing water. A flowing stream is the thing to be desired.

The auto-oiled windmill makes all this possible as it can run from one year's end to the other with practically no wear and no cost. If interested, write Aermotor Co., 1146 So. Campbell Ave., Chicago.

Why not have flowing water, cool in summer and warm in winter, always fresh and pure? It will cost next to nothing. It will give health to your family and stock. Let the water run into a good sized reservoir and raise all the fish of the choice kind your family can eat, and have water to irrigate your garden and make it raise many times as much as it would otherwise. Water costs nothing. Use it. To let it stand is to abuse it.

RUSHVILLE PLAYS AT SHELBYVILLE

Team Not Confident of Victory But
Expects to Hold Them to a
Small Score.

FIRST CONTEST WAS CLOSE

The Rushville high school basketball team, accompanied by a small band of rooters, left this afternoon for Shelbyville where the team will battle with the Shelbyville team tonight. Shelbyville by reason of one victory over the locals expects an easy time, but the local team will make Shelbyville know it has been in a game before the contest is over.

The team came out of the Connersville game in good shape and expects to hold Shelbyville to a small score, if it does not win. The game tonight will be the last before the district tournament at Richmond, which will start one week from today. Rushville has a good chance to win this meet and the dopsters not counting Rushville in on the money have a bum tip.

TEAM ORGANIZES.

The Rushville specials, which was a successful baseball team last season, has reorganized for the coming season and is expecting to schedule a number of games. It is possible the Specials may get in possession of the suits used by the Arcadians last year. John J. Conway has been elected manager and Gordon Bennett captain. Harry Rainey is the team's mascot.

The average yield of these two states according to Government Bulletin 641, is 36 bushels, while the United States average yield is 25.8 bushels. In other words, by using good seed, good cultivation, good sense and good fertilizers

COL. CODY WAS 70 YEARS OLD TODAY

Buffalo Bill, Despite Advancing Years is Erect and Walks With a Firm Step

BANQUET SCHEDULED TONIGHT

(By United Press.) Cody, Wyo., Feb. 26.—Col. William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), famous scout and showman is seventy years old today. Despite his advancing years the famous Indian fighter is as erect, walks with so firm a step and rides as well as in the past. His hair is now white. It is also somewhat thinner, but long locks still flow beneath Co. Cody's inevitable big, black hat. Col. Cody's birthday will be celebrated here tonight with a banquet at which plates for seventy persons will be laid, one for each year of the veteran's life. The banquet will be under the auspices of the Commercial Organization of Cody with "Buffalo Bill" as the guest of honor.

OLD, OLD STORY REPEATED AGAIN

First They Were Neighbors, Then Business Associations, and Then Finally—Well.

THEY DEPARTED TOGETHER

(By United Press.) Evansville, Ind., Feb. 26.—First they were neighbors, then business associates, finally they became intimate, and the next day their two families read of the elopement of the pretty vivacious young wife with her employer. She left a husband and he a wife and child. While she was in the charm of life, he was middleaged. That is the history in brief of another "interfamily" elopement of the same sort as many that have stirred various Indiana cities in the past few months. George A. Clark, manager of the Indiana Optical company lived in the adjoining house to Mrs. Floy Sweeney. A friendship sprang up between the two. Clark gave Sweeney employment as a traveling salesman. Later he employed Mrs. Sweeney in his office. They went to lunches and theaters together. They decided hastily to leave together, it is believed, after Clark had become involved financially.

DRASTIC MEASURE IS KILLED BY HOUSE

Bill That Would be Effective Weapon on Dead and Health Authorities Turn to Another.

THINGS IT PROVIDES FOR

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Feb. 26.—When the house after about ten minutes consideration killed the Miller bill that would have given the state an effective weapon against the "white plague," the health forces of the state turned their attention to the less drastic senate bill that has gone to the house, which would provide for the reporting of all cases of tuberculosis to the health authorities and the disinfection of houses occupied by them. The bill killed by the house was modeled after the New York law enacted in 1908, and took advantage of amendments made since that time. It would have provided for the control by the state of careless tubercular people by declaring them a public menace and permitting authorities to place them in institutions.

REACHES MANY PEOPLE IN STATE

Third Annual Report of Purdue
Agricultural Department Shows
it Had a Wide Appeal

FARMING TO FEEL IMPETUS

Deals Directly With Largest Influencing Factors and Affects
Major Interests of Staff

LaFayette Ind., Feb. 26—Through its various agencies the Agricultural Extension Department of Purdue University, during the year covered in its third annual report just issued by Prof. George I. Christie, superintendent, reached a million people in Indiana.

This remarkable record set forth in the report is supplemented by the still more surprising announcement that, despite the scope of the Department's activities and the vast field covered, the demands that are coming from all sections of the state of Indiana for help and advice at the present time are such that they can not be met in any adequate way. The extent of the Department's activities and the attitude of the people toward the work may be measured accordingly.

Indiana farmers have come to rely so strongly on the Purdue Extension bureau that agriculture throughout the state is bound to feel the impetus and make the progress that so long has been desired. Already the results are making themselves felt.

Occupying a prominent and important place among the educational forces of the state and dealing as it does in a direct way with the farm the home, the school and other factors influencing agriculture and rural life the extension service covers a large field and affects the major interests of the state. While the farmer and the homemaker are directly benefited in this way the banker, the merchant, the railroads and other business interests are correspondingly profiting from the work. City people in general, dependent upon the products of the farm, are all of them affected. One of the principal aims of the department is to keep on the farm capable, interested and trained young men and women, it being generally recognized that the future of agriculture depends largely upon this thing.

The report shows that during the year the United States Department of Agriculture lent considerable assistance to the extension campaign, notably in county agent and young people's club and contest work. Also in hog cholera work and dairy cow testing the government has worked in hearty cooperation with the Purdue agents. All of the counties that appointed county agents were supplied with competent men and teachers in schools where agriculture is being taught in accordance with the vocational training law were assisted during the year by instructors from the Extension Department, 4,931 teachers in the state receiving instruction. Sixty-three counties of the state were represented by 263 teachers at the summer school conducted at Purdue. In home economics the Department has done successful work also, demonstrations in connection with Farmers' Short Courses and independent of them, being attended by more than 6,000 women and girls. The alfalfa campaign conducted by the Department brought valuable information directly to more than 16,000 farmers. Speakers and judges were sent to more than 100 special agricultural meetings. More than 2,300 samples of seed were tested in the special laboratory for this purpose.

In the division of Farmers' Institutes the report shows that the number of meetings to the county range from 1 to 10 and that there were 410 separate meetings with 1,266 sessions. The average attendance at each meeting was 592 and the total attendance at these institutes was 248,293. The increase in the aggregate attendance above that of the previous year was 22,797 or more than 10 percent. Women instructors attended 360 meetings. In the division of Short Courses and exhibits the report shows that practically all county fairs in the state had Purdue exhibits. The number of district Short Courses held was 16 and the total attendance was 11,450.

The report of the division of boys' and girls' clubs and agricultural education sets forth the close relation of the clubs to school work in agriculture and domestic science. The county agent and the county superintendent of schools are the leaders in this field. More than 25,000 boys and girls enrolled in the home project club work such as corn growing, potato growing, poultry raising, gardening and canning. In every county in the state work in agriculture and domestic science is being carried on and some kind of contest or club work has been done. Through the efforts of the county agent as directed by the Extension Department more than 3,200 boys and girls are engaged in practical work in agriculture.

In the county agent division of the Extension Department's activities the following campaigns were carried on during the year; wheat, seed corn, oat smut and potato scab, orchard management, pork production and alfalfa. A total of 94 counties were visited in which 419 meetings were held with an attendance of 28,161. In addition to these special project meetings the county agents through the medium of township or farmers' community clubs and schools held 3,356 meetings with a total attendance of 305,022 at which seasonal topics were discussed. The county agents visited nearly 10,000 farms in response to requests from owners.

In the animal husbandry department much valuable work was done. Various live stock meetings were held in all parts of the state, a live stock survey was conducted in the central southern part of Indiana, special work was done in hog production and management and there were many other activities. In the division of botany the principal activities were along the line of research dealing with weed eradication and diseases. The dairy husbandry division contributed much information to the dairy farmers of the state and in the division of entomology lectures and laboratory work was carried on successfully. In the home economics, horticulture, soils and crops and veterinary divisions of the Extension Department a vast amount of work was done in connection with the Department's educational campaign.

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—“For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine.”—Mrs. S. T. RICHMOND, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N. Y.

PERU, N. Y.—“Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it.”—Mrs. MARIA IRWIN, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N. Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass.

SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—“The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living.”—Mrs. JANE D. DUNCAN, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

A REMEDY FOR BRONCHIAL COLDS

Philadelphia Man Tells How He Treated a Severe Case With Vinol and the Successful Result.

Philadelphia, Pa.—“Last Fall I was troubled with a very severe bronchial cold with very bad effects from it, headaches, backaches, and sick to my stomach. I was so bad I became alarmed and tried several medicines, also a doctor, but did not get any relief. One of the men where I am employed asked me to try Vinol, saying it cured his worst colds. I did so, and in a very short time received the relief which I craved. Now I am enjoying perfect health, and recommend Vinol to be all that is claimed for it.”

—JACK C. SINGLETON, Philadelphia, Pa. When we tell you that Vinol is the best remedy in all our large stock for chronic colds, coughs and bronchitis there is no excuse for letting a cough or cold hang on for months and even years.

It is the curative medicinal elements of the cod's livers, combined with blood making and strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it so successful in removing chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, after other medicines fail.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding your money will be returned if it fails to help you.

IN FORM IT IS TO BE ENACTED

Generally Believed Workman's Compensation Bill Will Become Law Without Any Change.

IT PASSES HOUSE, 84 TO 3

Now Goes to Senate Where Its Passage is Certain Because All Parties Favor it.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Feb. 26.—The compromise workman's compensation bill which passed the house late yesterday 84 to 3 was believed today to be in the final form in which it will be enacted. President Fox of the Indiana Federation of Labor, and F. M. Smith, secretary of the Indiana Association of Manufacturers and Commerce, both declared today that no amendments would be offered on the floor of the senate, in behalf of either organization. Its passage is expected.

The "Industrial Board of Indiana" to administer the law would be appointed as soon as it takes effect. This board would replace the present bureau of inspection, and its chief, Edgar A. Perkins, would become a member of the board. The other two members would be appointed by the Governor. The salaries of each would be $1,000 a year.

In simple words, the bill would give any employ injured while at work 55 per cent. of this salary during the period he was unable to work.

The provisions for the relief and care of workers who are injured in the mines, factories, shops, and other industries of the state, and the families of those who die from such injuries, would not take effect until Sept. 1 of this year. At that time every employer and employee would be considered to have come under the provisions of the act unless he had given specific notice that he preferred to take his chances at lawsuits in the courts. An employer who came under the act would have the old defenses of contributory negligence, the fellow-servant rule and assumed risk against an employee who refused to come under it. But no employer who refused to come under it would have these defenses.

The injured employee or his representative would have to give notice of the accident to the employer as soon as practicable and within thirty days unless reasonable excuse were given to the board for not doing so. For thirty days or more the employer would have to furnish, and the employee accept, medical service, but the board might order a change in medical service on complaint. The payment of compensations would begin two weeks after the injury, and would be on the basis of 55 per cent. of the average daily wage of the employees, but the average would be considered not less than $10 nor more than $24 a week.

In case of total disability, the employee would be cared for at this rate not to exceed 500 weeks.

In case of partial disability, there would be paid to the injured employee during his disability a weekly compensation equal to half the difference between his "average weekly wage" and the weekly wage at which he is actually employed after the injury, for a period not to exceed 500 weeks.

For crippling accidents, the compensation would run from 15 weeks for the loss of a finger, to 200 weeks for the loss of an arm.

When death results in three hundred weeks, there would be paid to the dependents a compensation during the remaining part of the 300 weeks. A wife or husband or children under 18 would be considered wholly dependent.

In no case would compensation exceed 5,000.

BILL AIMS AT FAST DRIVING

Proposed Law in Pennsylvania

Would do Away With Autos Capable of Doing 30 Miles an Hour

90,000 MACHINES AFFECTED

Another Would Compel Drivers to Have Eyes Tested to Qualify Them to Operate Cars

(By United Press.)

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 26.—Practically every automobile owner in Pennsylvania would have to junk his car or migrate, and every manufacturer or dealer in motor vehicles would have to re-adjust his business if a measure presented by Sen. F. P. Croft, of Montgomery county, should be passed. The bill provides: "That it should be unlawful to sell or offer for sale or operate on any public motor highway, or permit to be operated on any public highway, any motor vehicle which can be driven at a speed greater than thirty miles per hour, on an ordinary level highway. Violations are punishable by a $500 fine or one year in prison.

The bill is designed to prevent reckless and fast driving. About 90,000 owners of cars would come under the provisions of the measure.

Four other bills affecting motor vehicles have appeared in the assembly. One of the most drastic is sponsored by Rep. Richard J. Baldwin, of Delaware. It is also aimed at reckless drivers, asserting that the reason why "there are not more persons maimed or killed each year is a matter of good luck", and declares "it is entirely improper for the state to permit the use of highways for destruction of life or property without making adequate provisions for compensating the losers."

As a remedy Rep. Baldwin proposes that the state settle all damages caused by automobiles, the state being reimbursed by bringing the offending party to terms, and defraying costs by raising the license fees for motor vehicles.

All drivers of motor vehicles would be compelled to secure a certificate from a physician that their eyesight is unimpaired and their physical condition such as to qualify them to operate cars, in a bill offered by Sen. Washers of York. It is estimated that this would cost the motorists 1,250,000 annually in examination fees.

Rep. Davis of Lackawana, would forbid the operation of any motor vehicle by a person under fifteen years, unless such person is accompanied by a licensed chauffeur. The bill would also prevent the issuance of licenses to persons between fifteen and eighteen years of age unless competency to operate a car shall be sworn to by two licensed drivers.

A bill that has brought forth a hasty wail from the motorists is that presented by Rep. Mangan, of Pittsburgh. The measure would permit all cities to levy a license tax upon all resident automobile owners equal to the state license tax "for revenue purposes." This would make it possible for the cities to add a million dollars to their bank accounts.

$3000.00 FIRE PREVENTED

Read This Letter:

"Several years ago I called on Lane & Evans to buy a pump and they almost forced me to buy one of your Fig. 28 Red Jacket Double-Acting Force Pumps and fifty feet of hose when I only intended to buy a cheap set length pump. Mr. Lane put up such strong argument on 'fire protection' that I followed his advice and bought the Fig. 28, little thinking that it would be of any service to me in that respect.

Shortly after the pump was installed, my barn caught fire and had it not been for this pump and hose and the thoughtfulness of Mrs. Barnett, my barn house and all buildings on the place would have been destroyed."

Don't Pass Up the Comforts and Pleasures of Life

You have seen the museum mummy—take a hunch from him. He hasn't had any pleasure for over 5,000 years. He had his opportunity—did he get his share? Do you? Buy what you need and make life a pleasure to yourself and family. There will come a time when you can't. Ask the mummy, he knew once—did he enjoy life to the full extent as it was intended for him to do? He won't answer—it's up to you. For instance, if you need a New Storm Buggy or any other kind of a buggy, why don't you buy it and buy it now? We have plenty of them and we want to sell them. We have every style that was ever made, all colors of paint, all kinds of combinations. The man that deprives himself of all these comforts of life may leave a bigger tombstone to mark the hole he is finally forced to crawl into but he is a mummy all the years of his life. So get busy, buy yourself a buggy, buy the boy a buggy and get what pleasure you can out of life now. Next year may be too late. Don't forget our Opening on March 12-13. Come in and have a good time with us and don't forget to buy what you need to make life worth while. You will be a mummy soon enough.

ASSESSORS GET SET OF RULES

State Board of Tax Commissioners Sets Out Twenty Which Are to be Followed Rigdily.

WILL BEGIN WORK MONDAY

They Must Read Affidavits to Every One Assessed—Will Make Some Assessors Hoarse.

County Assessor Henry W. Schrader has received from the state board of tax commissioners a list of twenty rules by which the township assessors and their deputies will be guided during the coming time for

WASHING WON'T RID HEAD OF DANDRUFF

Dissolve It, That's Best Way.

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to preserve your hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair more quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everyone notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

assessment. The board insists that each of these rules be rigidly lived up to during the time property is being listed. A copy of the rules will be delivered to each township assessor when he calls Saturday.

One of the rules mentioned by the state board is that all affidavits on the assessment sheets must be read in full to the person being assessed before such persons makes oath to the affidavit and signs his or her name. In the past this rule has not been enforced to any great extent. These affidavits are extremely long and will be found printed in very small type on the back of the blanks. If the township assessors and their deputies read every word of these affidavits every time they assess a person they are going to have to get up and hustle or they will not finish their work within the time limit. Usually the assessor or his deputy mumbles something about the affidavit and says "shelp me God" after which the person being assessed nods his head, signs his name and it is all over.

Another rule the state board sets out is that dogs under three months of age are not to be assessed.

All property is to be assessed in round numbers and nothing under $10 is to be listed. This rule is likely to cause a falling off in the value of watches, revolvers, sewing machines, clocks, etc.

"Yes, I've got a shot gun but it ain't worth over $5," some man will say.

In that case his weapon will not be assessed.

Assessors are asked to be careful, where they are assessing a husband, to ascertain if his wife has any taxable property or if any other member of his family has any property upon which taxes might be levied.

Care is asked of the assessors in listing all of the taxable property in their jurisdiction and also to make the assessments uniform.

The assessors will begin their duties next Monday. They have been called to meet with the county assessor next Saturday when instructions will be given them. They will get their supplies from the auditor's office either Saturday or Monday. This is the year real estate is to be assessed. This duty falls on the shoulders of the assessors every four years.

As all assessable property held on the first of March is liable for taxation numerous local people are getting rid of their available ready money this week. Several are paying their spring taxes as this gets a certain portion of their money out of the way. Others are putting their cash in non-taxable securities. In that manner they have just as much property on the first of March as the day they made their investments, but cannot be assessed on such investments. That's the reason a good many people make them.

OHIO PRISON NOW HAS HOME RULE

"Council" at Columbus Penitentiary Composed of Banker, Bookkeeper, Molder and Laborers

WARDEN GETS CLOSER TO MEN

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Feb. 26.—A former banker, a farmer, a bookkeeper, a molder, a carpenter and two laborers compose the "council," at the Ohio penitentiary here. They are a part of the "government" in Warden P. E. Thomas' new plan for "home rule" for the prisoners.

These "councilmen" each one selected to represent a certain cell block, are accomplishing just what Warden Thomas expected when he put his plan into effect. They are enabling him to get into closer touch with the prisoners.

For instance, it has been a rule that shoes are distributed every so often. Some prisoners wear out shoes sooner than others. Heretofore they have accepted their lot, fearful that a request for shoes before the time specified by the rules would bring a reprimand. One "councilman" told the warden. Now prisoners are furnished with shoes when needed.

There are many trivial matters which prisoners have been afraid to bring to attention of officials and which officials have overlooked. As a result prisoners have nursed grudges. The "council" is expected to correct this situation.

ALL READY FOR FIRST BIG DAY

"Drys" Will Follow up Local Option
Sunday With Other Temperance
Meetings in Campaign.

PASTOR'S SUBJECTS FIXED

Each One Will Discuss Different
Phase of Topic at Mass Meeting Sunday Night

The "drys" have preparations complete for what is expected to be the greatest demonstration ever made here in a "wet" and "dry" campaign. According to the program which has been outlined for Sunday, which is termed local option day, there will be something going on from morning until night.

The men's Bible class teachers will exchange teachers, the ministers will exchange pulpits, men's and women's mass meetings will be held in the afternoon and at night a mass meeting for all persons will be held.

The Sunday meetings, however, is only the beginning of the activity of the "drys", it was stated by one in authority today. Only one week will elapse before more local option meetings will be held.

Frank J. Cannon, former United States senator from Utah, will be here Sunday, March 7, and will address a men's big meeting in the afternoon and a mass meeting at night. The men's meeting will be held at St. Paul's M. E. church and the mass meeting at night at the Main Street Christian church. Ex-senator Cannon is a most gifted orator and is heralded as a man who can give as severe an arraignment of the liquor traffic as any man who is engaged in combating the business.

The next "dry" meeting in order after the visit of the former senator here, will be addressed by Ex-governor Patterson of Tennessee. He will speak at the Main Street Christian church Thursday night, March 11. It is stated by the "drys" that it was impossible to get the former governor on Sunday so he was given this date.

It is also expected that George R. Stuart and Lincoln McConnell, both of whom have appeared at the chautauqua here, may be brought here for temperance addresses before the campaign closes.

Sunday morning the Rev. S. S. Huntington of the First Baptist church will preach at the United Presbyterian church, the Rev. A. D. Bachelors of St. Paul M. E. church at the First Presbyterian, the Rev. C. M. Yocum of the Main Street Christian at St. Paul M. E. the Rev. D. Ira Lambert of the First Presbyterian at the Main Street Christian and the Rev. A. W. Jamieson of the United Presbyterian at the First Baptist.

Judge Charles F. Malbary of Cincinnati will speak to the men's big meeting at St. Paul's M. E. church Sunday afternoon. The meeting will begin at two o'clock and Lucas' orchestra will play. Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley will speak at the women's big meeting at the United Presbyterian church, beginning at the same time, and Wagoner's orchestra will play.

At night the ministers will participate in the union meeting at the Main Street Christian church at seven o'clock. The Rev. A. D. Bachelors will discuss the legal phase of the local option question; the Rev. S. G. Huntington, the business phase; the Rev. D. Ira Lambert, the moral phase; the Rev. A. W. Jamieson, the taxation phase and the Rev. C. M. Yocum will have for his subject, "Is a 'Wet' Town Better Than a 'Dry' Town," or "Does Prohibition Prohibit?"

Stealing Watch.

STOLEN FROM ROY PERKINS

Jesse Easley, colored, 22 years old, was given a suspended sentence of from one to eight years in the state reformatory at Jeffersonville this morning by Judge Sparks when he entered a plea of guilty to the charge of petit larceny.

Easley stole a watch from the grocery store of Roy Perkins in West Eighth street ten days ago. According to the story told the officials, he sold the watch to another colored man and when he found out that Perkins was after him advised the second party to return the watch. Easley was represented in court by the county attorney, Wallace Morgan, and in entering a plea of guilty asked the court for mercy. The suspended sentence against Easley will stand pending good behavior.

BRINGS FORTH WRATH OF COURT

Failure of John E. Grubbs, a Guardian, to Obey Citation Causes
Judge to Criticize Him.

NO REPORT SINCE OCT. 1911

Is Given Twenty-Four Hours to File
One or Court Will Hold Him in Contempt, He Says.

Failure to obey a citation brought forth the wrath of Judge Sparks on John E. Grubbs this afternoon in the circuit court. Grubbs is the guardian of his children, Marie, Wilbur and Goldie Grubbs, and as guardian has not made a report to the court since October 5, 1911. Some time ago Judge Sparks issued several citations in guardianships and gave them all five days to explain to the court why reports had not been made or to file the reports.

Grubbs, who is employed at the Cessady meat market, ignored the citation, as far as telling the court anything and today an attachment was issued on him. He was brought into court and in no uncertain terms was told what was expected and was given twenty-four hours to make a report or take some action. Grubbs told the court that he appeared in the court room one day and that because the judge was busy he told the bailiff to tell the court he had been there. Judge Sparks told him he was the one to see and not the bailiff. At the end of twenty-four hours if Grubbs does not do something he will be held in contempt of court.

Judge Sparks, since taking the bench, has found the probate docket in need of attention as many reports are due. Three citations have been issued and others will be forthcoming if reports and the court business is not given more attention. Judge Sparks has even criticized several of the attorneys for getting behind in their reports. The court believes that guardianships are too important to be neglected and the reports must be made from now on when they are due.

In the Grubbs case the bond is only one thousand dollars and the amount of money held by the guardian is small, but there has been no accounting for three years. Carl Nipp was the attorney for Grubbs when he was appointed the guardian. Satisfactory returns were made on the other two citations issued by the court.

RUSH IS TIED UP WITH HENRY

Apportionment Proposed in New Bill
Would Not Allow Representative
From This County.

ON BASIS OF 8,000 VOTERS

Senatorial District Proposed in Another Measure is Rush, Fayette
and Decatur County.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Feb. 26.—The large counties in Indiana having three or more representatives under the new apportionment will be districted so that each representative will have his definite constituents if the bill of Senator McCormick introduced today is enacted. McCormick is chairman of the legislative apportionment committee of the senate and the bill represents the committee's work. It is understood to be the organization measure which will become a law.

New apportionment will be made on the basis of 8,000 voters. Lake county makes the biggest gain in representation under the bill, jumping from one member and a joint member to four members. Marion county jumps from eight to ten. Vanderburg from one and one-half to three and one-half. Allen from three to three and one-half and Vigo from two and one-half to three. Jefferson and some other counties in the southern part of the state, which have had one representative fall to merely a joint representative. These counties have lost population while counties in central and northern Indiana have generally gained.

The proposed apportionment follows:

Counties or groups of counties have one representative—Posey and Gibson, Gibson, Vanderburg and Warrick, Perry and Spencer, Knox, Knox and Pike, Sullivan, Greene, Greene and Daviess, Monroe and Brown, Martin and Dubois, Lawrence, Orange and Washington, Harrison and Crawford, Floyd, Clark, Jackson, Scott and Jefferson, Bartholomew, Decatur and Jennings, Ripley and Switzerland, Dearborn and Ohio, Hancock, Franklin and Fayette, Shelby, Henry, Henry and Rush, Wayne, Wayne and Union, Johnson, Putnam and Owen, Parke and Montgomery, Morgan, Hendricks, Fountain and Warren, Vermillion, Randolph, Jay, Adams, Wells and Blackford, Montgomery, Benton and Tippecanoe, Boone, Clinton, Hamilton, Tipton and Madison, Howard, Allen and Whitley, Noble, Dekalb, Noble, LaGrange and Steuben, Huntington, Wabash, Miami, Fulton and Miami, Cass, Carroll, Cass, Kosciusko, LaPorte, LaPorte and Starke, Lake and Porter, Newton and Jasper, Pulaski and White, Tippecanoe, Clay, Marshall.

Counties having two representatives: Madison, Delaware, Grant, Elkhart.

Counties having three representatives: Vanderburg, Vigo, Allen, St. Joseph.

Counties having four representatives: Lake.

Counties having ten representatives: Marion.

Under the new legislative apportionment bill, Rush county will be joined with Henry county in electing a representative, whereas for the last several years Rush county has elected a representative alone. If the bill passes—and it most undoubtedly will because it is the Democratic organization measure—Rush county will have to be content with being tied up with Henry county. Republicans were surprised that the

SENATE KILLS MERGER BILL

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 26.—Both branches of the legislature today went on record as opposed to moving Indiana university from Bloomington to Lafayette and combining it with Purdue. The senate killed the VanAnken merger bill and the house quickly tabled a resolution by Representative Bausman calling for a commission to investigate the proposed investigation.

Both actions were unanimous. The senate adopted by a voice vote the unanimous report of the finance committee that the VanAnken bill be postponed indefinitely. There was no debate in either house.

Bloomington will keep Indiana university for the present at least if unanimous action taken by the house today is any sign. It tabled quickly and without debate the resolution of Representative Bausman from the Lafayette district calling for the governor to investigate the advisability of removing Indiana university from Bloomington.

Representative Sare of Bloomington moved the resolution be tabled saying there was no need of such action.

(By United Press.)
Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 26.—Five men were injured, three seriously, when the New York and New England special No. 46 of the Big Four was derailed at Templeton near here early today. The train was going 60 miles an hour. Every car was torn from its trucks. All save two of the cars were steel which is credited with being the cause for no loss of life.

The injured are: James Beggs, engineer, Indianapolis, may die; Arthur I-hom, fireman, Indianapolis; Jack Horwitz, right leg crushed off, J. P. Seale, Fairmount, Ind.; G. H. Baer, Anna Cortez, Washington.

Horwitz was riding on the tender of the engine.

Seale and Baer rode in the smoker which was one of the two wooden cars. A steel rail upended by the engine tore through these cars practically cutting them in half. The end of the rail caught Seale and tore off practically all of his clothing though not injuring him seriously.

Consumers Pay the Freight

The store that does not advertise is under heavier expenses than the store that does.

Its rent, its light, its help, all its fixed charges foot up a larger percentage.

Retail costs are figured against volume of business.

The more business a store does the less it costs per sale.

Under these circumstances which store—the one that advertises or the one that does not—can afford to give the best values?

Let your own experience in shopping round convince you that it is to your profit to patronize the storekeepers who advertise in this newspaper.

FINDS ECHO IN WHEAT PIT

Bombardment of Dardanelles Causes Big Decline in Prices.

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Feb. 26.—The crumbling of the outer Dardanelles fortification before the great naval guns of the allies found an echo in the local wheat pit today when all grains dropped with a crash.

Opening at $1.51 and $1.21 per bushel for May and July options respectively, which were over night recessions of from two and three-eighths to 4 and one-quarter cents, May wheat at one time went as low as $1.46 while July wheat dropped to $1.20 1/2. The extreme drop from yesterday's close on May wheat was seven and three-eighths cents. On July wheat the loss since yesterday's close was four and three-fourths. There were wild scenes in the wheat pit as prices fell.

Rheumatism in Joints

Pain Disappears and Swelling Vanishes in a Few Days

That is what happens if you use Rheuma, the wonderful remedy that Johnson's Drug Store and all druggists sell on the "money back if not cured" plan. There is a vast amount of rheumatism in this vicinity, and if you know any sufferer, call his attention to this generous offer.

Rheuma is a quick-acting prescription. You will know your rheumatism is leaving 24 hours after you take the first dose. It dissolves the uric acid and drives it from its lodging place.

Mrs. Alice A. Brown, Ithaca, N. Y. writes: "For seven years I suffered greatly with rheumatism in my hip; at night I was scarcely able to sleep. One bottle of Rheuma cured me."

That sounds miraculous, but Rheuma does miraculous things. Fifty cents a bottle at Johnson's and all druggists. (Advertisement.)

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one divided disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The Mystic will show a two reel Lubin drama "When the Blind See" for the first picture tonight. Velma Whitman is featured. It is said to tell a great story of human interest. The other is the thirteenth episode of the Arthur Johnson series of picture "The Beloved Adventurer." This one is entitled "Through Desperate Hazards." Tomorrow night the three reel feature "The Colonel of the Red Hussars" will be shown.

Tonight, the Gem will show Grace Cunard and Francis Ford in "Heart of The Hills." Higby, scoundrel, "jumps" the mine of Jim and Harry before they can file their claim. Jim's wife and child become his tenant and later ejected from their home, the shock killing the mother. Riding through the mountains, the daughter is driven by a storm into the hermit's (her father's) cabin. A tree crashes through the cabin roof and strikes him, causing his mind to clear. He recognizes his daughter, and together they turn the tables on Higby and come into their own. The Princess will show the usual three pictures tonight. The first is a comedy "Who's Who in Hogg's Hollow." Sidney Drew is featured. The second is an Essanay drama "Broncho Billy's Christmas Spirit." It is said to be a thrilling western drama and features G. M. Anderson as

It is little wonder that many persons become disgusted with the wobbling editorial policy of many metropolitan newspapers after the spectacle furnished by Indianapolis Star. It was only during the last campaign while the Star was supporting the Progressive party ticket from top to bottom that the Star opposed the very interests whose cause it now espouses.

Those who have watched the legislature with any degree of interest have noted that the supreme fight among the Democrats has been to pass a measure that affects only Indianapolis—a measure designed by the machine politicians to vest in the mayor of Indianapolis monarchical power. The Indianapolis Star stood for the bill and the Indianapolis News fought it, the News eventually winning out because the lower house killed the bill this week.

The bill proposed for Indianapolis a so-called broad of finance which would take over many of the duties now held by the council and would make the members of the board solely responsible to the mayor, who would appoint them. Those back of the bill refused the suggestion that a recall clause be placed in the bill or that the measure be submitted to the people of Indianapolis to learn their attitude in regard to it.

The Indianapolis Star tried to shove it down the throats of Indianapolis people when it embodied all that the Star fought with such venom in the last campaign. Many persons are led to wonder how the Star can face about so completely.

Prince of "Side-Steppers"

Miss Estier Griffin White, formerly employed on one of the Richmond newspapers, but now publisher and editor of "The Little Paper" a new newspaper venture in Richmond—its third number having just appeared—is an ardent suffragist and in an editorial she classifies Finly Gray congressman from this district, as "prince of side-steppers." She speaks in part as follows of Finly's record on the suffrage question.

Witness that prince of old side-steppers, Finly Gray.

Once Finly was introduced to some local suffragists who asked him if he was going to support the cause in Congress.

"Certainly, dear ladies," he averred, "why I advocated woman's suffrage in my first graduating essay."

Finly didn't go on to relate how many graduating essays he had had since.

There's no two ways, though, that he is one of the most horrible examples we've ever had in Washington.

To all the women's clubs in the district, he declared with one voice and accord that he would support the suffrage amendment defeated in Congress some weeks since.

Then he went straight down to the national capitol and voted against it!

The thing for the women to do is to watch the lineup in the Indiana legislative vote and put a large, fat, juicy black mark after every man who votes against it.

The time of year is here when men in charge of the roads of Rush county can be of the most valued service to the county. After rains such as we have had off and on the last few days, the roads are soft so that the conditions are ideal for a road drag. Country roads can now be put in such shape by rounding up the surface so that they will drain well that they will need little care until next fall when the ruts begin to wear in them again. Many farmers who have a great interest in the roads of the county say that there is very little evidence of road drags being used in Rush county at this time. Road experts are agreed that a little work with road drags at this season is worth more than many hundred yards of gravel because the surface can be kept smooth so that it will be free of standing water and the roads will not wear near so fast.

Democratic majority should hook Rush county up with Henry county, which has a Republican majority and would assure a Republican representative from the district.

The apportionment is on the basis of eight thousand voters, which accounts for the fact that Rush county is not left a separate district. There are approximately fifty-five hundred voters in Rush county. The apportionment will be binding for six years if the legislature acts favorably on the bill.

Under the terms of the senatorial reapportionment bill introduced in the senate yesterday as the organization measure, Rush county is joined with Decatur and Fayette county to elect a senator. At present Rush, Fayette and Hancock counties compose a senatorial district. This new district will not make any material difference because both Decatur and Hancock counties show Democratic majorities.

A senatorial reapportionment bill was introduced earlier in the session which placed Rush county with Fayette and Franklin in a senatorial district, but that measure seems to have no chance at passage. Hancock county, which is taken from this district, is placed with Madison and Henry in the latest bill.

WOULD CHANGE OLD METHODS

New Primary Bill Which Will Likely
Pass Will Revolutionize Political Machinery.

COMMITTEEMEN ELECTED

Also Makes Compulsory Election of Delegates to County, District and State Conventions.

If the compromise direct primary bill which has been introduced in the state senate at Indianapolis, mention of which was made yesterday, becomes a law, the political machinery of any given political division of the state may be revolutionized. There is strong probability of the bill becoming a law because the organization in the legislature is behind it. Primary elections are mandatory only in case in the VanNuys bill. It provides all precinct committeemen shall be selected at a primary.

The bill was introduced by Senator VanNuys of Anderson, Democratic floor leader in the upper house and a former Rush county man. His bill differs from the Jones bill, which has passed the house. The Jones bill is a duplicate of the Rinear bill which the senate committee has recommended for indefinite postponement.

The difference between the Jones bill and the VanNuys bill lies in the fact that the latter provides for the retention of the state convention and for the nomination of candidates for congress and other offices by convention unless the people express a desire to the contrary at primaries that are to be held for the election of precinct committeemen. The VanNuys bill provides, however, that there shall be a direct election of all delegates.

The advocates of the Jones bill are insisting that it shall be adopted without amendment and that the VanNuys bill does not fulfill the platform pledges. It is the understanding, however, that an attempt will be made to use the VanNuys bill as the basis for a compromise measure on which a majority of the Democrats of the house and the senate may be able to agree.

The bill makes compulsory the election of precinct committeemen and delegates to all district, county and state conventions by primary and makes the selection of candidates for state, congressional, county, city, township and legislative officers optional with the voters. It provides for the election of precinct committeemen on the second Tuesday of January of the even number of years. In addition to the selection of precinct committeemen, the bill provides that at the January primary the question of nominating candidates for office by the convention system or by direct primaries may be submitted to the voters and the will of the majority would prevail. In order to put that question to a vote it would be necessary for the board of primary election commissioners to receive a petition signed by five per cent of the voters, the petition to be filed thirty days before the primary.

On the third Tuesday in March delegates to the state convention would be elected, and at the same time the selection of county, congressional or legislative officers would be made either by direct primary or by delegate convention, as the voters of the county determined. At the same time delegates to the national convention would be chosen.

On the second Tuesday in April, primaries for the election of city precinct committeemen would be held and it would be determined by voters then whether they desire the city officials to be nominated by delegate convention or by direct primary. Before the question could be submitted to the voters, however, a petition, signed by 10 per cent of the voters, would have to be presented, asking that the nominations be made by primary.

The bill also stipulates that on the third Tuesday in January the district chairmen shall meet in Indianapolis to elect a chairman. The county precinct committeemen would elect the county chairmen and the district chairmen in Marion county would be elected by the county precinct committeemen. In other districts the chairmen would be chosen by the county chairmen.

Almost a Riot On Main St.

The most tremendous rush for bargains ever witnessed in Rushville occurred today at the sale of the shoe stock of Ben A. Cox which is placed on sale for ten days by J. M. Costello & Co. to go at any price it will bring to raise cash quick. The people carried away the stock in armful, many paying as many as 15 or 20 pairs and in many instances a half dozen pairs of shoes, slippers and Oxfords were bought at the price of one pair.

The sale is advertised to run for ten days but if the people continue as they started out, it's a question whether the stock will hold out for the advertised time, as it was necessary to lock the doors today each time after enough people were admitted to fill the store, and after being served they passed out the rear way. The sale will open again Saturday at 9:00 a. m.

TWO TEAMS WILL BEAR WATCHING

White Sox and Yanks Expected to

Be in Running This Year in

American League

BOTH UNDERGO CHANGES

Collins Should Help Chicago and

Donovan as Manager Should Put

Life in Yankees

BY HAL SHERIDAN
(Written for United Press.)

New York, Feb. 26.—"Watch the White Sox and the Yanks this season; next October is going to find them a whole lot nearer the top than did last October. Maybe one of them will win the pennant; maybe not—but you can take it from me a team that wins it is going to have to play these two hard and safe all the way." This was the warning given at a recent league meeting here by a veteran manager who has seen seasons come and go—many more than he cares to admit.

"For why?" he echoed. "Just this—the Sox are due to make things hot for the winner because they have all the requisites of a darned good team; and the Yanks because they are in the Braves' class—not conceded much of a chance at the start of the season—and have a rip-snotin' manager in Bill Donovan who will get more work out of his men than any man in the business with the exception of George Stallings.

"Those White Sox have a real team now that Eddie Collins is playing second bag. He's a whole team in himself, for that matter. Their pitching staff last year was second to none in the league—Cicotte, Faber, Russell, Benz, and Scott won't take anybody's dust if they're in any sort of condition. Collins is going to cover a multitude of sins with his batting and base running. And he's going to steady this big, heavy-hitting Frenchman, Fournier, at first, too.

"The Yanks are going to figure, strange as it may seem. Remember the Braves? Well, they didn't have anything much but a manager when they started last season. That's the way with the Yanks. It may be a fool lunch o'mine, but I can't see anything but them up there battin' all the way.

Comeback of Old Fashions Noted In Styles For Approaching Season

BY MARGARET MASON

The newest silhouettes for Spring is called the "cloche." It's quite the thing.

"Cloche" means a bell, in French, you see

And that is fitting as can be. For what more logical, pray tell, Can one find than a bell-shaped belle?

New York, Feb. 26.—The belles of 1915 certainly bid fair to be ringers for the belles of olden days. With the tight bodice effects and full, full skirts, some even daring a bit of crimoline, the old fashions have now become the new ones. Become is quite the right word, too, for these quaintly feminine fashions are becoming to almost every type of femininity. So much so, that, given the lure of full ruffled skirts, a snug bodice and one of these adorably frivolous and inconsequent tiny round hats perched jauntily tabogganing her brow, most any belle may be sure of a ring before the month of brides and roses.

The finish of these voluminous skirts around the hem has become of paramount importance. Because its brevity has brought the hem more within the line of vision it must needs be enhanced and embellished. A perfectly good plain hem is no longer considered quite smart. There is a pronounced tendency toward a pointed or scalloped edge. A well rounded scallop is perhaps the happiest finish in juxtaposition to a well rounded limb. One of the most charmingly finished skirts in the Fifth Avenue window displays is an evening model of Nile green facille. The skirt is really a sort of two in one effect, for the outer skirt is very full and ankle length with a ten inch inset of scalloped Nile green net just above its scalloped silk hem. Under this outer skirt an underskirt a trifle less full and a trifle longer shows a bewitching trimming of tiny silk ruching and pale pink rose buds through the net transparency. The skirt is set high on the Empire bodice with a tiny rucheing and an inset of the net in the waist reveals a hint of the pink rose buds beneath.

RUSHVILLE PLAYS AT SHELBYVILLE

Team Not Confident of Victory But

Expects to Hold Them to a

Small Score.

FIRST CONTEST WAS CLOSE

The Rushville high school basketball team, accompanied by a small band of rooters, left this afternoon for Shelbyville where the team will battle with the Shelbyville team tonight. Shelbyville by reason of one victory over the locals expects an easy time, but the local team will make Shelbyville know it has been in a game before the contest is over. The team came out of the Connersville game in good shape and expects to hold Shelbyville to a small score, if it does not win. The game tonight will be the last before the district tournament at Richmond, which will start one week from today. Rushville has a good chance to win this meet and the dopsters not counting Rushville in on the money have a bum tip.

TEAM ORGANIZES.

The Rushville specials, which was a successful baseball team last season, has reorganized for the coming season and is expecting to schedule a number of games. It is possible the Specials may get in possession of the suits used by the Arcadians last year. John J. Conway has been elected manager and Gordon Bennett captain. Harry Rainey is the team's mascot.

THE AUTO-OILED WINDMILL WITH DUPLICATE GEARS RUNNING IN OIL

Every bearing is constantly flooded with oil. Two quarts of oil in the gear case of this 8-foot auto-oiled windmill will keep the gears and every bearing flooded with oil for a year or more.

The galvanized steel helmet covers the gears, keeps out rain, keeps out dust, keeps in oil. The mill needs oiling but once a year.

There is a windmill, known the world over as "the windmill which runs when all others stand still." This new windmill with gears and bearings flooded with oil runs in much less wear than that well known windmill.

The two large gears, which lift the load straight up, are each independent of the other and each is driven by its own pinion on the main shaft and must take its full load at all times.

The auto-oiled windmill, with its duplicate gears and two pinions lifting the load straight up, is unbreakable. Every 8-foot mill is tested under a pumping load of 3000 pounds on the pump rod. For the larger sizes the load is proportionately greater. We know that every one of these windmills is unbreakable. We venture the assertion that this is the most nearly perfect, best made, best tested, best oiled, most nearly perpetual, automatic and self-sufficient of any machine of any kind ever made for farm work and the most nearly fool-proof.

There is no friction on any part of the furling device when the mill is running and very little when the wheel is furled.

A small child can easily furl this regular windmill or an automatic regulator can take care of it. One of these mills has been furled 10,000 times in one day by a man on our premises—more times than it would ordinarily be furled in 30 years of service.

A band brake, of the automobile type, is used, and it always holds.

The gear case contains two pairs of gears and the supply of oil. From this gear case the oil circulates to every bearing in a constant stream. It flows out through the friction washers in the hub of the wheel and is automatically returned to the gear case. Not a drop of oil can escape. It is used over and over. So long as there is any oil in the gear case the gears and every bearing will be flooded with oil.

If you are tired of climbing a windmill tower; if you are tired of buying repairs and having them put on; or, if you are tired of waiting for a big wind, let us furnish you an unbreakable, self-oiling, ever-going mill to go on any old tower. It costs but little and you will get the difference between no water in a tight wind and an abundance of water in almost no wind.

The flooding of all the working parts with oil, the perfect balance of the wheel and vane on the tower, the very small turntable on which the mill pivots and the outside furling device make this difference.

Now there is no objection to a high tower. Have as high a tower as you need to get wind. You don't have to climb it. Your dealer can come once a year and put in oil, if needed, and inspect the mill.

Running water purifies itself—stagnant water, standing water, collects and retains impurities. If you pump from your well constantly all the water in the tank, the water that comes in to take its place will be pure. If the water in your well stands until you happen to want some, and you pump but little, then it is likely that surface water will flow into it and carry in impurities. The unsafe well is the one that has standing water. A flowing stream is the thing to be desired.

The auto-oiled windmill makes all this possible as it can run from one year's end to the other with practically no wear and no cost. If interested, write Aermotor Co., 1146 So. Campbell Ave., Chicago.

Why not have flowing water, cool in summer and warm in winter, always fresh and pure? It will cost next to nothing. It will give health to your family and stock. Let the water run into a good size reservoir and raise all the fish of the choice kinds your family can eat, and have water to irrigate your garden and make it raise many times as much as it would otherwise. Water costs nothing. Use it. To let it stand is to abuse it.

Cody, Wyo., Feb. 26.—Col. William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), famous scout and showman is seventy years old today.
Despite his advancing years the famous Indian fighter is as erect, walks with so firm a step and rides as well as in the past. His hair is now white. It is also somewhat thinner, but long locks still flow beneath Co. Cody's inevitable big, black hat.
Col. Cody's birthday will be celebrated here tonight with a banquet at which plates for seventy persons will be laid, one for each year of the veteran's life. The banquet will be under the auspices of the Commercial Organization of Cody with "Buffalo Bill" as the guest of honor.

OLD, OLD STORY
REPEATED AGAIN

First They Were Neighbors, Then
Business Associations, and Then Finally—Well.

THEY DEPARTED TOGETHER

(By United Press.)
Evansville, Ind., Feb. 26.—First they were neighbors, then business associates, finally they became intimate, and the next day their two families read of the elopement of the pretty vivacious young wife with her employer. She left a husband and he a wife and child. While she was in the charm of life, he was middle-aged.
That is the history in brief of another "interfamily" elopement of the same sort as many that have stirred various Indiana cities in the past few months.
George A. Clark, manager of the Indiana Optical company lived in the adjoining house to Mrs. Floy Sweeney. A friendship sprang up between the two.
Clark gave Sweeney employment as a traveling salesman. Later he employed Mrs. Sweeney in his office. They went to lunches and theaters together. They decided hastily to leave together, it is believed, after Clark had become involved financially.

DRASTIC MEASURE IS KILLED BY HOUSE

Bill That Would be Effective Weapon
on Dead and Health Authorities
Turn to Another.

THINGS IT PROVIDES FOR

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Feb. 26.—When the house after about ten minutes consideration killed the Miller bill that would have given the state an effective weapon against the "white plague," the health forces of the state turned their attention to the less drastic senate bill that has gone to the house, which would provide for the reporting of all cases of tuberculosis to the health authorities and the disinfection of houses occupied by them.
The bill killed by the house was modeled after the New York law enacted in 1908, and took advantage of amendments made since that time. It would have provided for the control by the state of careless tubercular people by declaring them a public menace and permitting authorities to place them in institutions.

REACHES MANY PEOPLE IN STATE

Third Annual Report of Purdue
Agricultural Department Shows
It Had a Wide Appeal

FARMING TO FEEL IMPETUS

Deals Directly With Largest Influencing Factors and Affects
Major Interests of Staff

LaFayette Ind., Feb. 26—Through its various agencies the Agricultural Extension Department of Purdue University, during the year covered in its third annual report just issued by Prof. George I. Christie, superintendent, reached a million people in Indiana.

This remarkable record as set forth in the report is supplemented by the still more surprising announcement that, despite the scope of the Department's activities and the vast field covered, the demands that are coming from all sections of the state of Indiana for help and advice at the present time are such that they can not be met in any adequate way. The extent of the Department's activities and the attitude of the people toward the work may be measured accordingly.

Indiana farmers have come to rely so strongly on the Purdue Extension bureau that agriculture throughout the state is bound to feel the impetus and make the progress that so long has been desired. Already the results are making themselves felt.

Occupying a prominent and important place among the educational forces of the state and dealing as it does in a direct way with the farm the home, the school and other factors influencing agriculture and rural life the extension service covers a large field and affects the major interests of the state. While the farmer and the homemaker are directly benefited in this way the banker, the merchant, the railroads and other business interests are correspondingly profiting from the work. City people in general, dependent upon the products of the farm, are all of them affected. One of the principal aims of the department is to keep on the farm capable, interested and trained young men and women, it being generally recognized that the future of agriculture depends largely upon this thing.

The report shows that during the year the United States Department of Agriculture lent considerable assistance to the extension campaign, notably in county agent and young people's club and contest work. Also in hog cholera work and dairy cow testing the government has worked in hearty cooperation with the Purdue agents. All of the counties that appointed county agents were supplied with competent men and teachers in schools where agriculture is being taught in accordance with the vocational training law were assisted during the year by instructors from the Extension Department, 4,931 teachers in the state receiving instruction. Sixty-three counties of the state were represented by 263 teachers at the summer school conducted at Purdue. In home economics the Department has done successful work also, demonstrations in connection with Farmers' Short Courses and independent of them, being attended by more than 6,000 women and girls. The alfalfa campaign conducted by the Department brought valuable information directly to more than 16,000 farmers. Speakers and judges were sent to more than 100 special agricultural meetings. More than 2,300 samples of seed were tested in the special laboratory for this purpose.

In the division of Farmers' Institutes the report shows that the number of meetings to the county range from 1 to 10 and that there were 410 separate meetings with 1,266 sessions. The average attendance at each meeting was 592 and the total attendance at these institutes was 248,293. The increase in the aggregate attendance above that of the previous year was 22,797 or more than 10 percent. Women instructors attended 360 meetings. In the division of Short Courses and exhibits the report shows that practically all county fairs in the state had Purdue exhibits. The number of district Short Courses held was 16 and the total attendance was 11,450.

The report of the division of boys' and girls' clubs and agricultural education sets forth the close relation of the clubs to school work in agriculture and domestic science. The county agent and the county superintendent of schools are the leaders in this field. More than 25,000 boys and girls enrolled in the home project club work such as corn growing, potato growing, poultry raising, gardening and canning. In every county in the state work in agriculture and domestic science is being carried on and some kind of contest or club work has been done. Through the efforts of the county agent as directed by the Extension Department more than 3,200 boys and girls are engaged in practical work in agriculture.

In the county agent division of the Extension Department's activities the following campaigns were carried on during the year; wheat, seed corn, oat smut and potato scab, orchard management, pork production and alfalfa. A total of 94 counties were visited in which 419 meetings were held with an attendance of 28,161. In addition to these special project meetings the county agents through the medium of township or farmers' community clubs and schools held 3,356 meetings with a total attendance of 305,922 at which seasonal topics were discussed. The county agents visited nearly 10,000 farms in response to requests from owners.

In the animal husbandry department much valuable work was done. Various live stock meetings were held in all parts of the state, a live stock survey was conducted in the central southern part of Indiana, special work was done in hog production and management and there were many other activities. In the division of botany the principal activities were along the line of research dealing with weed eradication and diseases. The dairy husbandry division contributed much information to the dairy farmers of the state and in the division of entomology lectures and laboratory work was carried on successfully. In the home economics, horticulture, soils and crops and veterinary divisions of the Extension Department a vast amount of work was done in connection with the Department's educational campaign.

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—“For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend, and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine.”—Mrs. S. T. RICHMOND, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N.Y.

PERU, N.Y.—“Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it.”—Mrs. MARIA IRWIN, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N.Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass.

SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—“The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living.”—Mrs. JANE D. DUNCAN, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

A REMEDY FOR BRONCHIAL COLDS

Philadelphia Man Tells How He Treated a Severe Case With Vinol and the Successful Result.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"Last Fall I was troubled with a very severe bronchial cold with very bad effects from it, headaches, backaches, and sick to my stomach. I was so bad I became alarmed and tried several medicines, also a doctor, but did not get any relief. One of the men where I am employed asked me to try Vinol, saying it cured his worst colds. I did so, and in a very short time received the relief which I craved. Now I am enjoying perfect health, and recommend Vinol to be all that is claimed for it."

—JACK C. SWARTZMAN, Philadelphia, Pa.

When we tell you that Vinol is the best remedy in all our large stock for chronic colds, coughs and bronchitis there is no excuse for letting a cough or cold hang on for months and even years.

It is the curative medicinal elements of the cod's liver, combined with blood making and strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol, which makes it so successful in removing chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, after other medicines fail.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding your money will be returned if it fails to help you.

Wearing pumps, together with the present style of short skirts, has placed a great deal of responsibility upon the stockings. They should be the right color, should fit neatly, and should show no signs of wear. The name of a stocking that you have tested and worn, is like the name of a friend that you know. Such a name is CORDON HOSIERY, made by one of the largest and most successful manufacturers of hosiery in the country.

Our Spring stock has arrived and we have a very complete assortment which we would like to show you.

tions will be given them. They will get their supplies from the auditor's office either Saturday or Monday. This is the year real estate is to be assessed. This duty falls on the shoulders of the assessors every four years.

As all assessable property held on the first of March is liable for taxation numerous local people are getting rid of their available ready money this week. Several are paying their spring taxes as this gets a certain portion of their money out of the way. Others are putting their cash in non-taxable securities. In that manner they have just as much property on the first of March as the day they made their investments, but cannot be assessed on such investments. That's the reason a good many people make them.

fore they have accepted their lot, fearful that a request for shoes before the time specified by the rules would bring a reprimand. One "councilman" told the warden. Now prisoners are furnished with shoes when needed.

There are many trivial matters which prisoners have been afraid to bring to attention of officials and which officials have overlooked. As a result prisoners have nursed grudges. The "council" is expected to correct this situation.

OHIO PRISON NOW HAS HOME RULE

"Council" at Columbus Penitentiary Composed of Banker, Bookkeeper, Molder and Laborers

WARDEN GETS CLOSER TO MEN

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., Feb. 26.—A former banker, a farmer, a bookkeeper, a molder, a carpenter and two laborers compose the "council," at the Ohio penitentiary here. They are a part of the "government" in Warden P. E. Thomas' new plan for "home rule" for the prisoners.

These "councilmen" each one selected to represent a certain cell block, are accomplishing just what Warden Thomas expected when he put his plan into effect. They are enabling him to get into closer touch with the prisoners.

For instance, it has been a rule that shoes are distributed every so often. Some prisoners wear out shoes sooner than others. Hereto-

If you will estimate the real worth of any "S. & H." Premium, you will find that you are receiving much greater value than if these local merchants attempted to pay you the same discount in cash.

There are plenty of imitators of the Original "S. & H." Stamps, but they don't offer you anything nearly so valuable. You exchange your "S. & H." WASHING WON'T RID HEAD OF DANDRUFF

Dissolve It, That's Best Way.

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to preserve your hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair more quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everyone notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.
